CEG CLASS OF 1971 – FOURTIETH YEAR REUNION

Group Photo of 1971 Batch

The class of 1971 held its fourtieth year reunion on December 17 and 18, 2011. The batch strength was around 250 and the database of around 160 has been organized with the especially dedicated yahoo group, titled "Guindy1971". The reunion got off to a flying start at GRT Convention Centre, T.Nagar with entertainment, cocktails and dinner. It was attended by 110 alumni from different parts of the country and USA and about 40 spouses. The function started at 7 p.m. sharp with remembrance and prayers to our classmates who are no longer with us. The MC was R.K. Shankar. "Friends Orchestra" played old nostalgic film numbers of mid 60's and early 70's. This prompted some of the classmates to show their prowess in singing and dancing on the stage, despite age and the body not cooperating. There was an atmosphere of gaiety, camaraderie and fellowship. Nostalgic memories of college days were relived with fervor.

The second day started with Coffee and Samosa at the Alumni Centre in the Campus. It was followed by sessions for group photographs with the spouses. Till about 11.30 a.m., time was spent on walking through the Campus, visiting various departments, specifically canteen and the car park to relive the memories of 1966-1971. The spouses along with the few children were packed off to "Dakshin Chitra" in one of the collage buses under the able leadership of fellow batch mate, Prof. Shanmugam, IIT, Madras.

The batch mates then adjourned to the Madras Race Club, Guindy for fellowship and lunch. The lunch was organized and coordinated by Javeed Ghatala who was the President of the Student Union during the passing out year.

Hundreds of photographs and video clips are being uploaded and shared, for the benefit of those who attended as well as those who missed. The team of 12 members behind the reunion was named as "Dirty Dozen" after a popular English Movie of our student days.
